

PEACHES

TO

BEACHES

THE CO(A)ST OF LIVING

life as an out-of-state student

My life seems to have always revolved around the letter A. Aanya. Academics. Art. Atlanta. Born and raised in Atlanta, Georgia, I always had big aspirations of moving to the "Best" Coast. Now a third-year student at the University of California in Sunny Santa Barbara, another A factors into my life: Affordability. This infographic aims to spotlight disparities between the cost of living in Atlanta, Georgia and Santa Barbara, California.

I am now:

a 3 hour bus ride to LAX ($49)
+ 4 hour flight ($400) to ATL

3 hours behind
2300 miles from

HOME

all values listed are averages

KEY

SB data

ATL data

1 in 5.49 Californians

LIVING NEAR POVERTY LINE

1 in 5.9 Georgians

MIN WAGE

$12.00/Hour
$5.15/Hour

GAS

$3.95/Gallon
$2.31/Gallon

INCOME TAX

9.3 Percent
6.0 Percent

Trademark Fast Food

IN-N-OUT
CHICK FIL A

In-N-Out Double Double Combo: $6.70
CFA Spicy Chicken Sandwich Deluxe Meal: $6.79

Yearly Tuition

UCSB

UGA

in-state $12570

$9790

out-of-state $42324

$28830

Average Early-Career Salary
(Post-Undergrad)

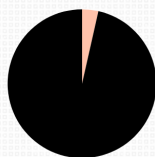

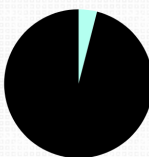

4%

OF CALIFORNIANS

3.5%

OF GEORGIANS

are UNEMPLOYED.

studio
apartment

668 SQUARE FEET

978 SQUARE FEET

monthly rent

$2112
$1485

01 | STATISTICS SOURCED FROM

osfa.uga.edu/costs/
www.finaid.ucsb.edu/cost-of-attendance
www.numbeo.com/cost-of-living/comparison.jsp
https://www.thebalance.com/us-poverty-rate-by-state-4585001

02 | GRAPHICS & IMAGES FROM

Unsplashd (courtesy of Piktochart)

powered by

PIKTOCHART